

Another Decrease In Population Of County Recorded

Truckee's Growth Not Seen As Report Shows Big Drop in County

Population of Nevada County for January 1, 1958, is estimated at 16,720, a decrease of 720 people or 4.1 percent from the 17,440 estimated population of the county at January 1, 1957, and a decrease of 15.9 percent from the 19,888 population shown by the April 1950 census, California Taxpayers' Association said.

While this decrease is shown in the county as a whole, the population of the eastern section continues to show an increase based on school enrollment, utility service connections, new dwellings and businesses and other indicative signs of development.

One of the best signs of growth here is the fact that during the past seven years, school enrollment has nearly doubled.

The county is one among a number in the state which show relatively big decreases in population—due largely to the movement of population to the industrial and urban areas in the state from the rural, agricultural communities. S. J. Arnold, general manager of the state-wide taxpayers association, explained.

Based on the taxpayers' association estimates, enrollment in public and parochial elementary schools in the individual counties, he stated.

For the 12 counties in the mountain area, population reached a total of 146,640 at January 1, 1958, compared with the 144,469 shown by the April, 1950, census, and the 150,130 estimated for January 1, 1957, the taxpayers' association said.

Biggest rate of increase in population in the area since the 1950 census, was in Alpine County, with a 149 percent increase to a total of 600 at January 1, 1958, from the 241 population shown by the census.

Next biggest rate of increase in El Dorado County, which shows a 22.4 percent growth to 19,840 from the 16,207 census population.

Population estimates for the counties in the mountain area, at January 1, 1958, show: Alpine, 600; Amador, 9000; Calaveras, 9550; El Dorado, 19,830; Inyo, 12,330; Mariposa, 4870; Mono, 2220; Nevada, 16,720; Placer, 48,460; Plumas, 10,760; Sierra, 2000; and Tuolumne, 10,290.

STATE INCOME AIDE RETIRES FROM JOB

A familiar figure in Truckee will be missed this year as local taxpayers seek assistance in preparing their state tax forms.

Charles Dapper, who has devoted more than 30 years to tax collection work, starting with the internal revenue service in 1924, retired January 1, three days prior to his 70th birthday.

Dapper, a native of Michigan Bluff, Placer County, moved to Auburn at the age of 16 to engage in the cigar making business. He served with the 91st division in World War I and in 1919 was a deputy sheriff in Placer County.

He had been with the state tax board since 1936 and each year visited Truckee among other northern California cities and towns to assist taxpayers. The state will undoubtedly send his replacement this year.

DAVE ROSE IS FETED AT SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Dave Rose surprised her husband by entertaining 40 guests Monday evening, in honor of his natal date.

The hostess served coffee and the traditional birthday cake at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose were also hosts at a cocktail party on New Year's eve.

WIFE OF SANITARIAN JOINS HUSBAND HERE

Mrs. Richard Walker has arrived from Los Angeles to join her husband here, the area sanitarian for Nevada County.

The couple will live at Donner Lake until they build their home in the Donner Trails tract. Mrs. Walker is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and the Business and Professional Women's Club at Sun Valley, California.

Suit Filed Against Resort As Result Stranding On Lift

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Woodland of El Centro have filed suit for $75,000 against the Squaw Valley Development Corporation as a result of frightening and painful experience they claim they suffered at Squaw Valley last September.

The couple said they were stranded for several hours during the night after the operator of the lift chair in which they were passengers shut the equipment down for the day, not realizing the couple still occupied one of the chairs high up Squaw Peak and 25 feet from the ground.

The Woodlands told officers at the Tahoe Forest Hospital where they were treated for shock and injuries that they boarded the lift at shortly before 5 p.m. and were on the return trip to the bottom at 6:45 when the lift stopped between Tower 23 and 24.

Woodland said he waited until far into the night then made a makeshift rope of clothing and attempted to climb down. He fell into the brush and rocks and remained unconscious, he said, for some time. Later he made his way to the lodge and called help. The lift attendant explained he thought all passengers were off the lift when he closed down and went home.

Favorable Report On Local Airport

Another step toward development of an airport in the Truckee area was taken this week with the receipt of a report by the Civil Aeronautics Administration on a recent survey of the Martis Valley site.

Cecil Edmunds, chairman of the Truckee Aviation Committee, received the favorable report from Clyde P. Barnett, director of aeronautics for the California Aeronautics Commission.

In the document, prepared by W. E. Gillfillan, airport engineer for the CAA and Carl G. Hand, district airport engineer, a preference was shown for a landing strip running southwest to northeast through the valley, in relation to two other strips given CAA approval.

The report pointed out the fact that the proposed airport would be serving the highly populated resort area of North Tahoe, as well as Truckee and the Donner Summit areas, and would be in great demand during the holding of the 1960 winter Olympic games.

The nearest airport would be Reno which is 27 air miles distant and the local field would serve a valuable purpose in providing quick access to Lake Tahoe, Squaw Valley, Donner and other nearby popular areas.

Tests of the soil, weather, winds and other data were submitted in the report and all indicate the feasibility of the facility, Edmunds declared. The Truckee airport is included in the 1957 National Airport Plan as a feeder service type airport for general use and is entitled to federal assistance.

A report of the air carrier division of the CAA will be made at a later date to supplement the recent report, Edmunds said.

VANDALISM AT LAKE REPORTED TO BOARD

AUBURN—The supervisors referred to Sheriff William A. Scott a letter from Stanley W. Good, Jr., of Menlo Park complaining of vandalism in the Lake Tahoe area. Good asked for more police protection during the winter months in that area.

Scott has already held conferences with local Tahoe constables to work out better surveillance of the area. Burglaries and break-ins in that area were numerous this fall, Scott reported.

Changes Planned As Dolley Heads Truckee Chamber

Full-time Office, Secretary Will Add To Benefit For Chamber

N. F. (Tom) Dolley was elected president of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce by a unanimous vote at the meeting held last Friday at Smart's. He replaces Red Reid who has served as head of the chamber for the past year.

In accepting the post, Dolley said a number of projects are contemplated, including the establishment of a full-time office in the business section to be manned during business hours.

As secretary, Dolley announced the appointment of Miss Patricia Andres, currently employed at the office of the Truckee Public Utility District, where, Dolley said, he hopes to establish the chamber's full-time office.

Emphasis will be placed on providing a multi-colored brochure advertising the district and its possibilities, Dolley declared, but at the same time careful attention will be given all correspondence, greeting newcomers to the community and generally providing a full-time, active chamber.

The next meeting of the chamber will be held at Brown's Cafe on Wednesday, January 8 at noon. Dolley said he plans to alternate the meeting place for the twice-a-month gatherings of the directors and members.

Zeph Rose was chosen as vice-president and C. Z. Smith was elected financial secretary to replace Earl Stice. The latter, currently employed at Norden but living here was retained on the board of directors and other members are Lee Apple, Dr. Ben King, Dr. Robert Affeldt, Dan Horman, Robert Mosby, George Young, Walter Barrett, Cecil Edmunds, W. M. Englehart, Jr., Reg Smart and Ken Hedlund.

TRADE WINDS OPEN FOR WINTER SEASON

KINGS BEACH—Starting Friday the Trade Winds at Kings Beach will be open and the Chinese diners which have made the establishment popular in the North Tahoe area will be served under the capable management of owner Joe Ross.

The bar, which has been closed for the past two months was reopened New Year's day and will continue operating during the winter with Jack Ross in charge.

Joe Ross, at present in southern California, is expected back during the coming week to take over active management of the popular establishment. While the menu will not be as large as the summer season, many of the items which have popularized the Trade Winds will be featured.

Classes in square dancing continue through the holidays under the auspices of the Donner Dancers. The young people's group meets tonight at 8 in the Veterans Hall with Lloyd and Virginia Everetts as instructors. The adult beginners meet tomorrow night at 8 in the same building. This session will be followed by the regular Friday evening dancing party.

Charles and Betty Rich, Gene and Frances Tompkins, and Mickey Hall representing the Tahoe Twirlers visited the local group last Friday evening.

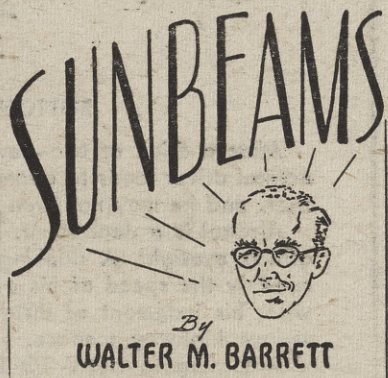

MINOR INJURIES ARE RESULT OF CRASH

Minor injuries were suffered by Charles A. Webster of Oakland Friday at 10:30 p.m. when his car was struck by a truck driven by Bill McRae Osier of Salt Lake City at Donner Lake Lodge.

Sgt. Frank Snyder of the CHP reported Webster was making an illegal turn and Osier could not avoid the collision. Webster was cited.

From Santa Cruz—Pamela and Dorette Rose returned this week from Santa Cruz where they were guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Snider.

In Capital—Marcia and Barry Leamon have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker at Sacramento, this week.

WALTER M. BARRETT

Need for expansion of facilities at the Tahoe Forest Hospital are beginning to be felt, particularly at providing ward quarters to supply service at minimum cost to the patient, and enlargement of the emergency treatment area. While this need has long been noted by hospital officials, it has been emphasized with the approach of the 1960 winter Olympic games, and possible designation of the hospital here as the chief medical center for that event. Efforts are being made by hospital officials, assisted by the Olympic people and state representatives to have these improvements completed by 1960. There should be no opposition to the project, since the constant growth of the area, the increasing demand for hospital service and the urgency of the program are apparent. The hospital board and the administration as well as state representatives are to be praised for their forward attitude in this matter and deserve the support of the community for their efforts. Public health and safety cannot be overlooked in our present accelerated rate of development.

Why not make one of your new year's resolutions to buy at home? At the end of the year, both you and your community will be better off.

HELLERS GIVE AWAY SCORES OF SHOES TO LOCAL BABIES

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heller of Heller's Variety, have bought and given away more shoes during the past 10 years than all the rest of the people in the community combined.

The local couple started a practice, when the Tahoe Forest Hospital was opened, of giving each baby born there his or her first pair of shoes, and in summarizing the gift routine, Heller said he has lost track of the exact number of pairs presented, but believed it would run close to 250.

The Hellers as well as operating their store are busy in community affairs and he is a director on the hospital board.

Anniversaries Observed By Lake Tahoe People

The 49th wedding anniversary of Judge and Mrs. Harry Charrison as well as his birthday which occurred on New Year's eve was a quiet, triple event this year, due to Charrison's recent illness.

Reports from friends of the well loved couple, this week told of his steady improvement at Washoe Medical Center and it is hoped that his health will allow him to return home very soon.

Carl Sorensen of Kings Beach and Jay Shontz of Tahoe City whose birth dates also fall on December 31, have in past years, celebrated the event with the Charrisons.

S. P. Gives Tahoe Building For Use As Youth Center

Community Use Will Be Made Of Old Agent Structure

TAHOE CITY—Tahoe City soon will have a new youth and community center, the old Southern Pacific agent's quarters.

The railroad turned over bill of sale for the structure this week to J. M. Paolini, chairman of the Placer County Board of Supervisors. V. E. Anderson, superintendent of SP's Sacramento division, represented the railroad during brief ceremonies in Roseville.

The building, a two-story, three unit apartment house valued at more than $12,000, will be removed to provide dormitory accommodations, a clubroom equipped with game space and equipment and a canteen.

The railroad donated the structure to Placer County for use by Tahoe City residents after the Tahoe-Truckee High School Parent Teacher Association started a drive earlier this year to interest service organizations in providing a more active program for teenagers. When completed, the center will also be used by the Boy Scouts, women's clubs and other community groups.

The historic building, which has seen only occasional occupancy in recent years, is in a wooded area adjacent to Route 89 just outside Tahoe City. This was once the railroad for SP's Tahoe branch, once the famous narrow gauge Truckee to Lake Tahoe Railroad.

Land on which the building stands is owned by the Truckee-Carson Irrigation District, which has agreed to a lease for the community use.

EXCELLENT SKIING ON DONNER SUMMIT

SUGAR BOWL—There are 3 1/2 feet of packed powder snow at the bottom of the lifts and 4 1/2 at the top in the Sugar Bowl, Manager Walter Haug reports.

Ideal weather and snow conditions on the summit have resulted in capacity crowds of skiers in the area.

On Sunday January 12, the Sugar Bowl Ski Club will hold a giant slalom races for juniors. The race has been approved by the Far West Ski Association and there is a limit of 70 entries for the Class I, II and III events. Awards will be given to winners in each class.

The remodeled Magic Carpet is handling crowds much faster and waiting in line is almost non-existent, Haug said.

The matter was originally scheduled to be heard December 13, but was continued because a majority of members was not present.

Hospital Plans To Expand Facilities For Olympic Need

Agencies Lend Aid To Give Hospital Added Room With Wards

Efforts are being continued to have the Tahoe Forest Hospital designated as the chief medical center for the 1960 Winter Olympic games.

In order to bring the institution up to full standards by that time, as well as provide for fast increasing noraml patronage, the board of directors, Administrator J. J. McGlade, the medical staff, members of the California Olympic Commission and State Senator Harold T. Johnson are coordinating their efforts to increase facilities there.

A meeting has been scheduled later this month with Senator Johnson as a prelude to a second meeting to be held in Sacramento with state hospital and governmental officials in an effort to work out satisfactory arrangements.

H. D. Thoreau, executive secretary for the California Olympic Commission, has advised Senator Johnson and the local hospital officials that although the organizing committee have not formulated plans in detail at this time that it is their intention to utilize the full facilities of the hospital here as a focal point of their medical plan.

"All of the people concerned with the staff of the VIII Olympic Winter Games realize that the public health and safety must be one of our paramount considerations in planning for the games and certainly it is vital to this planning to have the Tahoe Forest Hospital expanded so that it, as the only hospital nearby, can handle the bulk of the game's needs," Thoreau wrote.

"I have discussed this with Mr. Charles R. Blyth, chairman, and Mr. Walter Barrett of the California Olympic Commission, and they believe that the commission will be happy to join in extending its support to the hospital district's efforts," he concluded in reply to a letter from Senator Johnson, seeking the commission's support of the plan to increase the hospital facilities during the next two years.

McGlade said that a comprehensive expansion plan has been formulated and is ready for presentation to the state people to show the necessity and to obtain, if possible, state assistance.

The hospital's architects, Cox & Liske of Sacramento, have prepared a master plan for expansion which includes wards for both male and female patients; doubling the capacity of the emergency treatment area; remodeling and relocating the maternity section and other minor change and improvements.

OPEL CAR ATTRACTS AT LOCAL GARAGE

Something new has been added at Osburn's Buick Garage. It is the compact, sturdy little Opel, a new 4-cylinder, German built car being distributed in this country by General Motors. Osburn says the little vehicle is not only powerful for its size, but will average 35 miles on a gallon of gasoline. The model on the floor here, is the two-door sedan, roomy, beautifully finished and complete with many accessories and sells for less than $2200.

WARNING ISSUED ON GEBHARDT POWDER

The California Highway Patrol has been asked to alert all papers to issue a warning that the sale of Gebhardt's Eagle Chili powder has been prohibited following the discovery that samples from a batch in San Francisco contained glass.

A national warning against the use of the powder was issued and consumers were asked to destroy any one-ounce or three-ounce bottles or return them to retailers.

HOW TO DRIVE

A tip from the AAA's driving guide for adults.

BOTTOMS UP!

After a drink or two—even a couple of beers—a normal driver tends to abandon his usual safety practices, and he may not even know it.

Alcohol is a depressant. It slows reaction time and affects eyesight. A drinking driver cannot judge accurately the speed of his own car or of others. Likewise, his judgment of distances is impaired. He is a serious highway menace.

According to HOW TO DRIVE, the AAA's booklet for adult drivers, "Bottoms Up" may be a motorist's toast to disaster.

STRICTLY STRICKLAND

By Bill Strickland

Our Mountain Top looks like mid-winter what with good snow—good weather and good crowds. Some friends of our skied at the Sugar Bowl over the weekend and said it was the largest crowd they'd ever seen there. All the other places on the Mountain had a bumper crop of skiers bouncing out also at the most unexpected times. Dick Read's Plavada was jammed as was Milt and Maggie Avila's Hill at Rainbow Tavern. On down the line at the old Auburn Ski Club grounds, now Tunnel Mountain, more of the same. And, if you looked way down the Hill, at what was at one time the place to ski—Laing's Pioneer Camp at Emigrant Gap was buzzing with beginners just like of old. All in all a wonderful beginning for the New Year of 1958.

Jake Overstreet, Ardelle Kelly and Beverly Schirmer were up again for the holidays. Jake's father, Inspector Jack Overstreet, of the San Francisco Police Department, had a phone call from North Dakota a few days back. It was from Bill and Pat Ryan who had been residents of our Mountain two winters ago. They were on their way back to the West Coast and possibly our neck of the woods, again.

JOHNSON LAUDED ON SCHOOL BUS SUPPORT

State Senator Harold J. Johnson, of Roseville, was commended by Los Angeles County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn for his prompt and strong support of proposed legislation to extend the same protection to children riding private school buses as is now accorded children riding public school buses.

In a recent letter to each member of the California Legislature, including the 80 assemblymen and the 40 senators, Supervisor Hahn outlined details of the tragic accident in Los Angeles on September 30, in which five children and the driver of a school bus transporting children of the All Saints Parochial School were killed when the bus crashed into an open ravine.

Supervisor Hahn's investigation of the accident revealed that the bus had not been inspected for safety by either the California Highway Patrol or the state public utilities commission.

It was pointed out that while the highway patrol inspects all public school buses for safety features, private and parochial school buses are exempted from such inspections. Since these buses are not common carriers they are not under the jurisdiction of the state public utilities commission. Supervisor Hahn immediately secured passage of an ordinance for Los Angeles County requiring all private and parochial school buses to be inspected by the California Highway Patrol the same as public school buses.

However, there are 57 other counties in California where private and parochial school buses are exempted from safety inspection. As a consequence, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors will introduce legislation at the next session of the California Legislature.

a little when they can get the time off. Dean Beyer is working for Bud Zorich and our son, Bob, is giving Ralph Rowton a hand in his service station operation. Freddie Secco is up for his Christmas vacation and besides winter sports is helping his Dad in the operation of Crest Lodge. Starry Madeline and Bud Walton are holiday residents, as are Bobbie and Joanie Forster. Then, of course, you can't help but run into the youngsters of Max Williamson, Sherm Reams and Al Kelly.

I'll have some news on the Junior FWSA program in the near future. There was one very important point brought out at the convention last April—as soon as I get the final word on it from the FWSA, I'll pass it along to you.

ture requiring inspection of all private and parochial school buses in California on a state-wide, uniform basis, just as public school buses are now inspected.

In reply to Supervisor Hahn's letter, Senator Johnson stated: "I agree thoroughly with the content of your letter and shall do all I can to help correct this dangerous situation."

Note From Swannee

Swannee writes a warm and cheery note from Bud Scott's at 2045 Oakland avenue in Piedmont. Here is a part of it: "And speaking of snow, I'm certainly happy to be out of it. Twenty-five years of cold and snow and sleet is enough for one lifetime. . . . It's just beautiful down here. . . . The Scotts' home is beautiful with terraced gardens and lawns and flowers all in bloom. We have a big pine tree, maple, olive and oaks in the back garden, with two bushy-tailed red squirrels playing about all day long. . . . Fuschia of every color and description blooming in profusion everywhere. Believe me, it's a real pleasure to see them, instead of snow-like living in the country—in the city."

"Have had a marvelous time looking up old friends in the bay area where I was raised and worked as a billing clerk for Jackson Furniture before my marriage. Also had a thrill last Wednesday when I went to Christmas shop and wound up on the TV show, 'The Money Tree.' Was too late to be a participant but sure got a big bang out of it as I had a seat in the front row of the audience."

"Will be going to my daughter's (Mrs. Marie Steenis) in Reno for a four-day holiday over New Years. Leave here on December 28. I am supposed to try and make Christmas at Jim Baker's on Fairway Drive but cannot make it. Will go up for some of New Years."

"Had a letter yesterday from my good friend, Dr. Stuart Dingwall, who owns and operates the veterinary hospital on the river, who tells me of his engagement and coming marriage to Mrs. Ruth Anderson, a very pretty brunette. They plan to be married early in the spring, probably at Easter time. Am afraid some feminine hearts at the lake will be saddened by the news. . . but such is life. Stu is a grand person and congratulations are certainly in order. Very happy holidays to you all. Cordially and sincerely, Swannee."

Rotary To Meet

Rotary will meet at the Tahoe Inn next Tuesday evening, January 7. The last two meeting nights were on Christmas and New Year's eve and so no meetings were held.

Many Skiers

In spite of the small rain the ski slopes have been most busy. On different days we dropped in at Granlibakken, Deep Park, newly named the Powder Bowl, and Squaw Valley and Papoose and each slope has been dotted with graceful, swooping figures.

Holiday Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Porter have had a full house this holiday season. Their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gray from El Cerrito, were up and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Porter, Jr., from Beverly Hills and their three children, Kathy, Laura and Frank, made the family group complete. Mrs. Gray broke her ankle on Christmas day while skiing and rather ruefully missed both the home feast and the special Christmas dinner at the hospital. She made up for it the following day, her father reports. Porters will leave this January 3 for their annual spring and summer buying trip. They will be gone about three weeks.

Visits Lake

Al Stevens, a student at Rice University in Texas, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Dave and Chick McBride. The girls, Karen, Diane and Leslie are taking great pleasure in teasing and being teased by their grownup cousin.

Up For Holiday

One notices the years when one sees children after a long absence. The three Gorham young people, John, Bill and Jean, are children no longer. They are visiting their mother and stepfather, Jeannette and Rusty Rustad at Granlibakken for the Christmas holidays.

In Hospital

We are sorry to report that Marie Henry's sister, Mrs. Celeste Daniels of Las Vegas, has been hospitalized for the last several weeks. Her friends here can get her address from Marie.

Henry's Busy

The Henrys had two family occasions for Christmas. Each younger generation wanted to spare Marie the work of Christmas dinner preparation so Jean and Al Henry and their children, Gary and Karen, were hosts to the grandparents, A. M. and Marie Henry, and to Malcolm and Pat and Tabor Fox. On Christmas day the Fox family returned the honors at their Squaw Valley home. Mrs. Mary P. Planette and her son, Fred, were guests of the Henrys later in the week.

Work On Roads

We are all most grateful to the state and county highway maintenance men who spent most of their Christmas eve and day in plowing and sanding the roads.

With Daughter

Mrs. Iva Bean has spent the holiday time with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Al Cavallo.

Best To Judge

We give our sincere good wishes to Judge Harrison and hope that he is on the mend by now.

Swan Song

This will be our last column. It has been fun to write the news for our little lake community and I am most grateful to all of you who have been so kind about giving me news and so gentle about my mistakes of both command and omission. Mrs. Marie Graham of the library will carry on. She can be reached at Juniper 3-3968 or any weekday afternoon at the library.

Experiment By Patrol To Concentrate On Main Highways Is Complete

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The California Highway Patrol announced it almost has completed a special traffic enforcement experiment which called for concentrating patrol vehicles on main highways, with less attention to secondary roads.

The experiment, which began September 1 and will be completed in January, was carried on in Williams, Sacramento, Merced, San Andreas, Fresno, Ukiah, Martinez, Redwood City and San Rafael. In November, it was tried in Woodland, Stockton, Napa, Vallejo, San Jose, Salinas, Riverside and San Bernardino counties.

B. R. Caldwell, patrol commissioner, said the study was made at the request of the state senate finance committee.

"This is not a new type of enforcement technique to us," Caldwell said. "We did not expect to find out anything we did not already know. But we like to be modern in our attitudes and always give full consideration to all suggestions."

Caldwell emphasized that patrol cars were on call for accidents at all times and the experiment was carried without depriving "someone of the safety or protection to which they are entitled by the limited number of vehicles at our command."

While a final report is due in March, Caldwell said, preliminary findings were that exposure of the vehicles on main highways had a good effect on traffic flow but did not reduce accidents.

"During the experiment, some area captains reported an increase of violations in areas which were not regularly patrolled," he said. "In those cases, regular patrols were restored."

ENTERING FREEWAY—During normal traffic hours, the advisable way to enter freeways from the on-ramp is to look for approaching cars as you steadily increase speed so that you can merge with the traffic, suggests the California State Automobile Association. Use extreme caution when entering the freeway, but DO NOT STOP on the approach strip unless it is necessary.

STATE CONFIRMS ITS STAND AT SQUAW

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—A merry-go-round of administrative confusion ground to a halt in the capitol December 20 when the public works board met.

The board had scheduled a meeting for that date to confirm its action on amending a condemnation proceeding, now in Placer County superior court, against landowners in Squaw Valley. The action was brought to secure lands for development in preparation of the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley.

Here is what the board acted on December 20:

Some time ago, the California Olympics Commission revised its original plans as to parking during the games. While it had been planned to park spectator cars near Truckee and shuttle fans to Squaw Valley in buses, the commission decided to provide parking facilities in the valley. A navy technique, involving compacting snow, would be used to prepare the lot.

The technique still is in experimental stages. The change in parking plans required an additional 130 acres of property, on a temporary basis, while requirements for other property were reduced by 10 acres.

As a result, John M. Peirce, state finance director, adopted a resolution December 3, approving the change in condemnation proceedings to meet new property requirements.

On December 10, the state public works board met to consider approving Peirce's action. At the time, the only members of the board present were Peirce and F. W. Griesinger, real estate commissioner. An attorney for landowners at Squaw Valley said the board could not act as Peirce should be disqualified from acting in approving his own action. However, the resolution of Peirce was approved.

Now the board held another meeting and confirmed its own action.

State Employment High, Two Agencies Report

SACRAMENTO—Highest November California employment on record, despite a large increase in unemployment and a severe drop in employment, was reported today by two state agencies.

H. W. Stewart, director of employment, announced that 53,000 more Californians were out of work than in October. A total of 228,000 were unemployed this November, 87,000 more than a year ago. This was the largest November unemployment figure since 1949 when 361,000 were seeking work.

BEER PURCHASERS HELD MOST GUILLIBLE

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Buyers of beer apparently are more guillible than purchasers of pickles, according to rulings of two state agencies.

The office of Attorney General Edmund G. Brown has issued an opinion saying that the word "style" used in advertising or on labels of packed dill pickles does not violate laws covering false representation of food products. Processors who label dill pickles as "kosher style" when they do not conform to Orthodox Jewish ritual requirements are not in violation, the opinion said.

Now the department of alcoholic beverage control, on the other hand, said beer manufacturers in California who represent their products as of "eastern quality" are attempting to mislead the public. The department currently has an accusation pending against the Maier Brewing Co., Los Angeles, for calling its California-made beer of "eastern quality."

Malcolm Harris, deputy director of the ABC department, said many restaurants list prices of beer, with eastern beer about 30 or 40 percent higher than western. "In the minds of the public, eastern beer is of higher quality and they're willing to pay more for it," Harris said. "Actually, there is no difference in quality but it still is misleading for a firm to infer its beer was made in the east."

The attorney general's opinion said the word "style" often connotes "imitation." It cites expressions like "renaissance style, antique style and Dior style." "Any woman knowledgeable in the field would attest that a 'Dior style' gown was not created by the master himself and that a 'French style' dress was most probably created in an American garment center."

Ernest B. Webb, director of industrial relations, announced that total employment decreased more than seasonally from 5,772,000 in October to 5,642,000 in November. This drop of 130,000 was larger than any previous October-November decline and compares with losses of 112,000 in 1956 and 90,000 in 1955.

The two officials stated that the November decline in jobs and the increase in joblessness exceeded the usual amount because of continued layoffs in aircraft and associated manufacturing industries. Most other industry changes were seasonal—cutbacks in agriculture, canning and lumber offset pre-holiday hiring in retail trade.

ACTION DELAYED ON FREEWAY ROUTINGS

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The California Highway Commission has delayed action on adoption of a new policy for selecting freeway routes.

The commission met with a delegation of mayors, headed by Theodore Meriam of Chico. No date was set for the next meeting but the commission assured the mayors they would have the opportunity to discuss a new policy resolution before it was adopted.

Meriam said many city people felt that cities "had no voice whatsoever" in selection of freeway routes and that the commission often used only engineering factors in making its decisions on location of routes.

Commissioner Robert E. McClure, Santa Monica, said he understood the cities' point of view but the number one need of the state was to speed the building of freeways.

"We don't want to take any short cuts that would deprive citizens of their property rights or any other rights," McClure said, "but we have got to find ways to advance the program."

During the course of the meeting, the commission agreed to a change in the proposed resolution which would provide cities with earlier information than under the present set up. However, it refused to go along with a proposal that the state engineer give his specific recommendation for a route of the cities before it was presented to the commission.

TRUCKEE BIBLE CHURCH

Last Sunday the new scripture press books were distributed for the next Sunday school quarter. All lessons have correlated Gospel-graph visual and stories which help in emphasizing Christian truths.

Pastor Rhoades is now free for full time Christian service since his support has been assumed by student missionary council. He would welcome any calls to visit the sick or offer Christian counseling.

Tuesday night was the occasion of a watch night service from 9 o'clock until midnight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Westley Boyer. This proved to be a time of Christian fellowship and spiritual refreshment which culminated with the serving of the Lord's Supper.

We rejoice to announce that Christian friends from Auburn have supplied us with the beginnings of a church library which now includes copies of such Christian magazines as "Moody Monthly," "The King's Business," "The Conqueror," "Young Life" and many worthwhile Moody colorpage books.

On Tuesday the seventh the women's Bible class will resume their study in practical Christian living at 10 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Hedlund.

The Teen-Time group look forward to an ice skating party this Friday in Truckee at 7:30.

Party Held

Due to blizzard conditions it was necessary to hold the annual Council Christmas party at the Kings Beach elementary school on December 21 in the afternoon. Thanks to Santa Claus' efforts (Rev. Earl Languth), it was a joyous time for the little tykes and many lovely gifts were opened and many tummies were filled with the goodies from the socks. Another wonderful Christmas is passed and thanks to everyone's cooperation, a very successful one.

Open House

The Harry Hoopers of Brockway Hill were hosts at a lovely open house at the Crystal Bay Club on December 28. After a cocktail hour approximately 100 people enjoyed a beautifully served buffet. Harry and Ceta with their young sons, Jon and Charles, are newcomers to the community from Yuba City and are rapidly becoming very active.

Study Problem

Roy Porath, chairman of the board of directors of the North Tahoe Fire Central Corporation, called a meeting with his board and the board commissioners of the North Tahoe Fire Protection District on December 18th to try to effect the terms under which they should turn over the assets and liabilities of their corporation to the district. The main problem under discussion was the balance of construction on the building where their fire equipment is stored. The building is constructed on forestry department property under contract. Your comments will be appreciated by the commissioners of the district, James Sergi, Bob Howell and Nell Barkhurst and the Ed Moores.

COUNTY WILL SHARE IN FOREST REVENUE

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — State Controller Robert C. Kirkwood announced today Nevada County will receive $63,878 as its share of the $3,922,719 in U.S. Forest reserve receipts for the 1956-57 fiscal year.

The total represents a 25 percent of the total forest reserve revenues received by the federal government in California during the year ended June 30, 1957. It is apportioned among 39 counties.

The current apportionment showed a drop of 24.58 percent, or $1,301,636 from last year, Kirkwood said. He said this largely was the result of a general slump in the lumber market which slowed sales and reduced the amount of timber cut in the latter part of the fiscal year.

Total footage of timber cut in California dropped from 1,055,706,000 in 1955-56 to 969,080,000 board feet in 1956-57. Total value dropped from $18,049,338 to $17,477,545.

One-half of the amount apportioned to each California county is deposited in its unappropriated elementary school fund and one-half in its road fund.

Plumas County, with $508,421, received the largest amount, followed by Siskiyou with $476,720. The smallest apportionment, $792, went to Orange County.

The first steamship in California waters, the Stika, made its trial run in San Francisco Bay November 15, 1847.

Greg's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alice and Andy Sorensen.

An outstanding fare of first run pictures is scheduled for this week at the Donner Theater. Tonight, Alan Ladd and Shelly Winters will star in the technicolor thriller, Saskatchewan, filmed in the Canadian Rockies and telling the fast moving story of the Mounties.

Troop Hook, with Joel McCrea and Barbara Stanwyck will be the attraction Friday and Saturday. In this story will be found all the thrills of the early west in the war with the Apache. It is based on an original story by Jack Schaefer. Miss Stanwyck portrays a white woman held captive by an Indian chief, whose son she bears, and her final liberation by Trooper Hook.

Sunday and Monday, Band of Angels with Clark Gable and Yvonne DeCarlo comes to the Donner. Here is a story of a beautiful girl purchased off the New Orleans slave block by a wealthy man and the life they had together.

Completing the week's program will be the Harlem Globe Trotters which will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday. This is a full-length sports feature.

NEW FISH LICENSES ARE NOW ON SALE

Fishing licenses for 1958, and the new license stamps, are now on sale throughout the state at all license dealers, the department of fish and game announced.

All sports fishermen will require a basic sport fishing license, which will cost them $3 apiece, same as last year. The basic license is good for fishing in ocean waters only.

In addition, they will require one or two license stamps affixed to this basic license if they are fishing in inland waters. A license stamp will cost $1 and may be purchased at any time.

California fishermen will need only one stamp on their basic license if they want to fish for steelhead and warmwater species in inland water (except for trout or frogs).

They will need two of these $1 stamps if they want to fish for trout or take frogs.

Each stamp must be permanently affixed in the space provided on the basic license and each stamp must be signed in ink by the license owner.

THAT'S A FACTDATES ANNOUNCED FOR JUSTICE EXAMS

Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson, as chairman of the Judicial Council of California, announced that February 1, 1958, has been set as the date of examination the council is required by law to conduct to qualify lay candidates for the office of judge of the justice court.

The examination will be given in every county having a justice court in which applications to take the examination have been filed. Announcements stating the scope of the examination will be posted at each county seat.

The examination will be written and will cover the jurisdiction, practice and procedure of justice courts, as well as the duties and responsibilities of the judges. Every person desiring to take the examination must file application in the office of the county clerk not less than 10 days prior to the examination date.

Under the court reorganization effected several years ago, a candidate is not eligible for election or appointment as a judge of a justice court unless he is an attorney or has passed a qualifying examination, except judges of the old system automatically succeeding to offices in the new courts.

The examination is given to permit persons to qualify as candidates for the office at the June, 1958, primary election.

RECORD OF KILL IN DEER SEASON SHOWN

The fourth highest bag on record—65,214 bucks—was posted by California deer hunters in the 1957 season, the department of fish and game announced today.

In releasing its final year-end report of deer tag tabulations, the department pointed out that the 1957 total was only 5000 less than last year's buck kill figure of 70,371.

The department also had a good word for the outlook next year. Unless California has a harsh winter which could result in high deer losses, hunters should also record a high deer bag in the 1958 season, the report predicted. This forecast is based on the excellent survival of the 1956 class of fawns and apparent good survival of the fawn class of 1957.

For the second successive year Siskiyou County was the top deer producer, once again taking this honor away from the traditional leader, Mendocino, which this year moved up to third place from its fourth place ranking in the 1956 season. Mendocino continues to top all counties in the five-year averages.

The 1957 bag was recorded despite an apparent decline in the number of hunters afield. Tag sale returns to date indicate fewer than 395,000 Californians hunted deer this year. The final figure may reach 400,000 when the books are closed next July, but this is well below the 1956 sale of 448,666 tags, the all-time state record.

TAHOE CITY—Bishop Clarence Haden conducted services Sunday at the St. Nicholas Church on the grounds of the Outdoor Chapel here.

At an early morning baptismal rite the bishop received the following members into the fellowship of the church: Chris, Pauli and Lance Poulsen, Mrs. Allan Calhoun and her two older children, Scotty and Bryan. At the later regular service for worship Bishop Haden gave the Christmas sermon which spoke directly to the children as well as the adults. At this service Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moyer and their daughter, Susan, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Howard, Chris Poulsen, Mrs. Pauline Keehn and her daughter and Leonard Bury and his son, Don, were confirmed. An informal reception for the bishop followed the church service.

At a meeting of the church building planning committee Loren Holmwood showed his color drawings for the interior of the new church which is now in the process of being built at the head of the Truckee river. These beautiful drawings may be seen at the office of Charles Beardsley. "Don't try to remove the old 1957 sticker, you'll make a mess of it," the department advised.

"Remove any wax or road dirt from the old sticker. Warm the area covered by the sticker by briefly pressing the palm of your hand to it."

Renewal period for 1958 vehicle registrations is January 2, February 4.
